

This summer, archaeologists and volunteers will be working at the Wemyss Caves to learn more about the history of this amazing site.

This summer, archaeologists and volunteers will be working at the Wemyss Caves to learn more about the history of this amazing site.

FRIDAY 12TH JULY
7pm - 9:30pm

Rosie & McDuff Hall, Alexander Street, East Wemyss KY1 4QH

The Archaeology and Symbols of the Wemyss Caves

Talks by archaeologists Joanna Hambly of the SCAPE Trust and Dr Gordon Noble of the University of Aberdeen on the archaeology of the Wemyss Caves.

FRIDAY 12TH JULY
7pm - 9:30pm

Rosie & McDuff Hall, Alexander Street, East Wemyss KY1 4QH

The Archaeology and Symbols of the Wemyss Caves

Talks by archaeologists Joanna Hambly of the SCAPE Trust and Dr Gordon Noble of the University of Aberdeen on the archaeology of the Wemyss Caves.

DIG THE PICTS

SUNDAY 14TH JULY
11am - 4pm

Wemyss Caves Museum, Terras Hall,
The Haugh, East Wemyss KY1 4SB

Guided tours to visit the excavations at the caves leave from the Museum at 11am, 12:30pm and 2pm.

Visit the excavations and speak to the experts at work in the caves

Have your face painted with specially created Pictish designs

Try stone carving with an expert from Historic Environment Scotland

These activities are all based at the Terras Hall

DIG THE PICTS

SUNDAY 14TH JULY
11am - 4pm

Wemyss Caves Museum, Terras Hall,
The Haugh, East Wemyss KY1 4SB

Guided tours to visit the excavations at the caves leave from the Museum at 11am, 12:30pm and 2pm.

Visit the excavations and speak to the experts at work in the caves

Have your face painted with specially created Pictish designs

Try stone carving with an expert from Historic Environment Scotland

These activities are all based at the Terras Hall