FIND A JOB IN HEALTH AND SOCIAL CARE

Looking to start an exciting career in Health and Social Care? If you're not in full-time education, employment or training, The King's Trust is here for you.

If you're aged 16-30, you can join one of our courses and find a pathway into a rewarding role within Scotland's largest employer, NHS Scotland.

What's involved?

One-to-one guidance

Receive 1:1 support to boost your confidence, enabling you to search for and apply for roles in the NHS and healthcare.

Crafting your job story

Be connected with your own youth worker to create your own CV and apply for jobs within the NHS and beyond.

NHS insight and access

Get signed up to the internal NHS TURAS training account. Understand the NHS values and how to relate them to your own life experiences to strengthen your applications.
