

Forth House Location

New Volunteer House Services Locate to Forth House, Kirkcaldy, KY1 1RU

Services previously delivered from New Volunteer House, 16 East Fergus Place, Kirkcaldy have relocated to Forth House, Abbotshall Road, Kirkcaldy from 13 July 2016 until further notice. This is to allow essential maintenance work to the building.

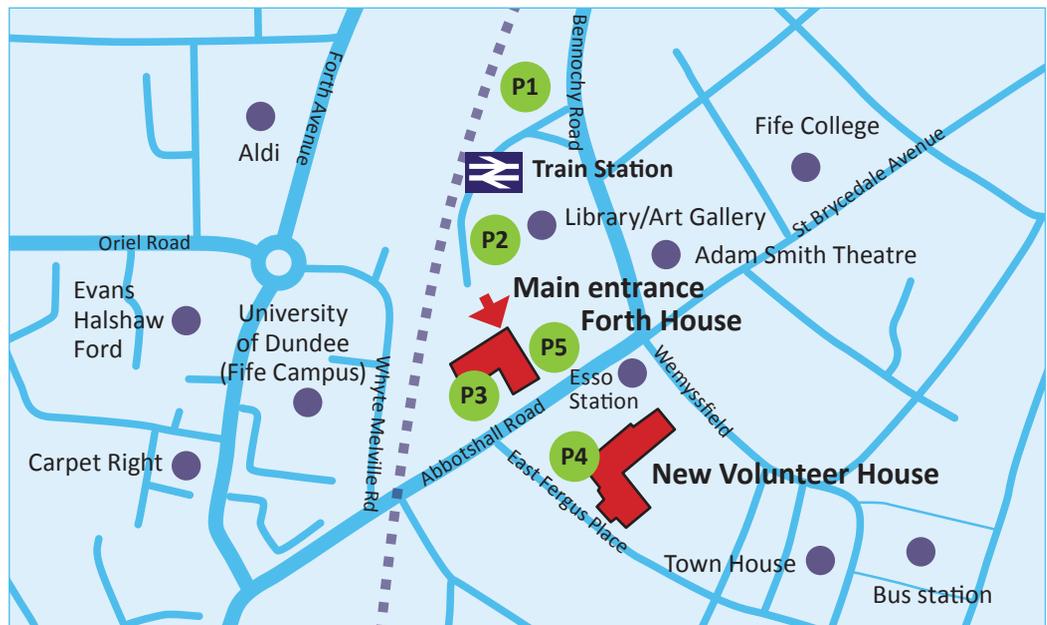

Forth House is formerly the local office for Kirkcaldy and is the 1930's building between Kirkcaldy train station and the library/museum/art gallery. It is accessible from the train station, just a few yards away and within easy walking distance of the bus station, Townhouse and town centre.

CARF, the Job Club, Frontline Fife, FVA, HM Courts and Tribunal Service and all room hires can now be accessed at Forth House - please see the map below for directions, public transport and parking information. To book client interview rooms or meeting rooms please contact us using the details below.

Parking is very limited but the building is accessible to those with mobility issues.

For more information or assistance please feel free to call us on 01592 645300 or e-mail info@fifevoluntaryaction.org.uk Further information can also be found on our website: www.fifevoluntaryaction.org.uk
