

Know Your Network

Evaluation Report – Wednesday 24 August 2016

This word cloud shows all the words delegates selected to describe the event from a list of both positive and negative words – the size of the word is relative to the number of people who selected it.

“This is now a necessary event”
Cllr Tony Martin

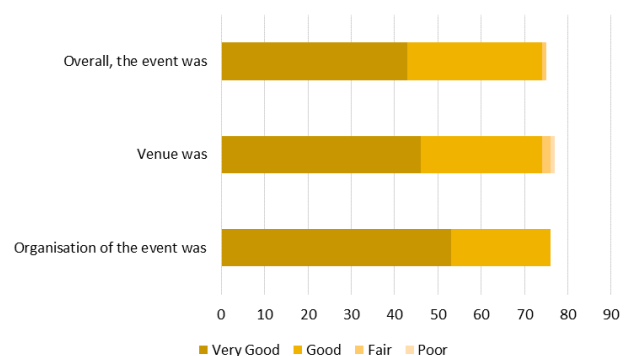

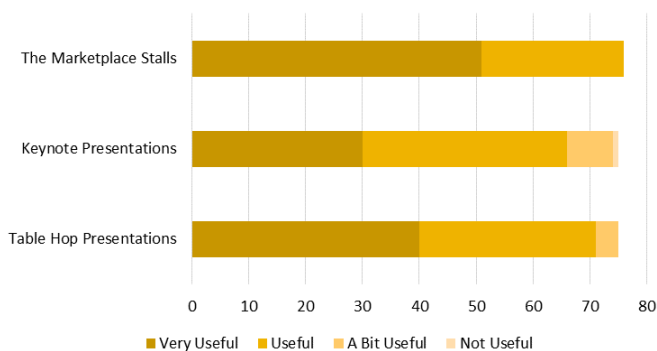

Attendance on the day:

177 people attended across the day with 44% providing feedback. Of those who booked using our Eventbrite booking page, just over half had not attended a previous Know Your Network.

33 stalls from a range of employability providers and support organisations were represented.

Participants rated the following:

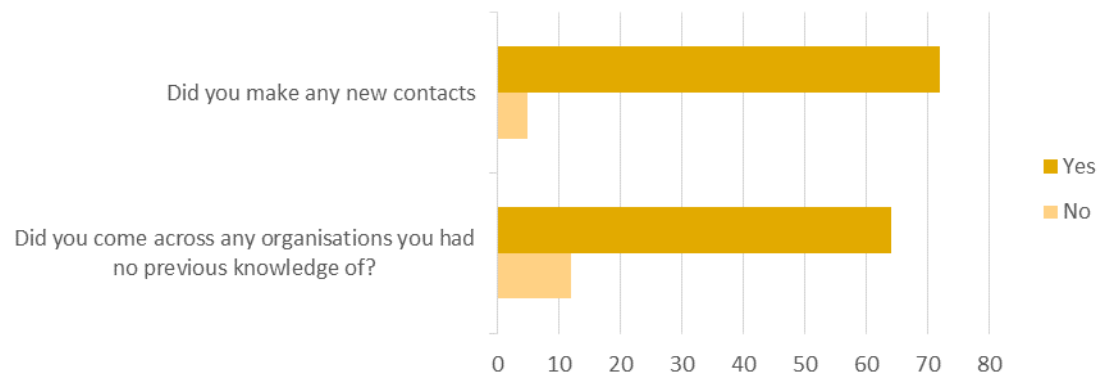

What the stats told us:

You found the Market Place stalls the most useful part of the day and enjoyed the Table Hop Presentations. The discussion topics were rated highly, particularly Mental Health and Employability and Volunteering into Work – we’re glad you enjoyed the discussion topics which were new for 2016.

Connections made at Know Your Network 2016

“Excellent networking opportunity from a very full day.”

Things you liked about the event:

You found the event flowed well and was well organised

A wide range of employability providers and support organisations were represented – you appreciated this variety

The event was informative with the majority of you meeting someone new

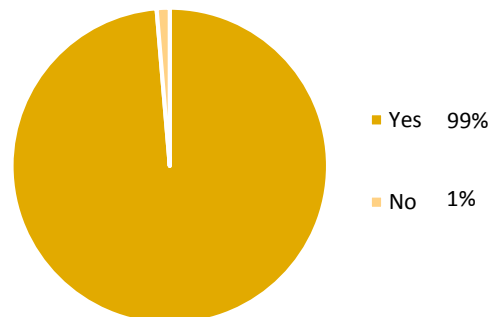

You enjoyed the discussion groups which were new for KYN16

It's been a fantastic day and feel so much more confident in my role as Work Coach with these networks to use!

This is the third consecutive Know Your Network we have organised.

We're delighted that you rank the event so highly and that 99% of you would like to see more events like this.

Would you like to see more events like this?

Things you would like us to improve for next time:

Ensure the microphone is louder and clearer.

A bigger venue as you felt the marketplace and the conference room were a bit cramped.

The event shouldn't feel as rushed.

Loved the day, lots of friendly networking.

Thank you for your feedback on Know Your Network 2016

Your feedback allows us to continue to develop this event, ensuring it's even better next time round.

This report was produced by Fife Voluntary Action in partnership with Opportunities Fife Partnership, September 2016