

Casual Worker Arrangement

Pay Method	Payment is every 4 weeks in arrears by electronic funds transfer to your bank or building society. There will be deductions for income tax and National Insurance.
Obligation to Work	You will be contacted when work is available. There is no obligation on the Council to offer you work nor are you obliged to accept work. However, if you repeatedly turn down offers of work your name may be removed from the casual worker list. You will be advised of the days/hours of work and location when an offer is made.
Leave	You will be entitled to paid leave proportional to the hours worked, in accordance with the Working Time Directive.
