

Fife Employability Forum

Improving employment outcomes for the people of Fife

Wednesday 29th January 2014

Meeting Room 10, Rothes Halls

9.00 Registration

9.30 Welcome and outline of the morning.

The session will be facilitated by Carolyn Stenhouse from Avanté Consulting.

The morning will open with presentations on the latest thinking behind the Opportunities Fife Partnership's Employability Pathway Commissioning Guidelines and European Structural Investment Funds (ESIF) 2014-20. We will also hear from Bruce Penman of WEACTION, the lead partner for Edinburgh's Integrated Employability Service.

The prime focus of the whole morning will be to discuss the impacts of ESIF and the Draft Employability Pathway Commissioning Guidelines.

The exact timings of the morning will be led by participants and their conversations. Please rest assured there will be plenty of tea, coffee and biscuits available throughout the morning and time allowed for comfort breaks.

12.20 My Shout – an open session for you to tell others about new initiatives, share challenges and get ideas.

12.30 Buffet Lunch
